On Thursday, June 19, 2008 the City of Strongsville hosted the quarterly Business Network Breakfast at the Walter F. Ehrnfelt Recreation Center. The event was attended by 152 local business men & women from neighboring corporations, banks, and civic organizations. First Federal of Lakewood's president Gary Fix & Dennis Stapleton, Director of Legislative and Governmental Affairs for Ohio's Office of the Consumer's Counsel, were the featured speakers at the event.

During the breakfast, Mayor Thomas P. Perciak provided a brief insight into the economic status of the city and Gene Magocky, Director of Economic Development for the City of Strongsville, gave a recap of the projects that have been completed within Strongsville's four business parks for 2008 year-to-date.
