

Memorial Day Parade and Ceremony Set

The annual Memorial Day parade and ceremony, sponsored by VFW Post 3345, will take place again this year on Monday, May 25.

The parade will step off at 11 a.m. from St. Joseph Church and head south on Pearl Road to Zverina Lane, ending at the Freedom Trail gazebo.

It will be followed by a short ceremony there.

The Strongsville Historical Village will be open from 11:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. that day, with tours, crafts for kids, a Fallen Comrade table and a display for Strongsville's War of Independence vets.

City of Strongsville News and Updates

A Hot Time for Retail in Strongsville this Summer

A number of new businesses — many of them food-related — are set to open in Strongsville in the coming months.

A rundown:

The Turn Golf Lounge — Opening this summer at 19694 W. 130th St., it will offer 24/7 access to golf simulators and a lounge.

Deano's Trattoria — A modern Italian restaurant is taking over the Italian Village spot on Pearl.

Pasquale's — An Italian restaurant is being built at Camden Woods on Prospect and Royalton.

Double Shot — A drive-through coffee shop will be built on Whitney behind Sheetz.

Lao Sze Chuan — An upscale Sichuan restaurant will move into the former Red Lobster building at SouthPark Mall.

Zest Pastry and Coffee — This bakery is soon to open on W. 130th Street.

Grocery Outlet — This new bargain market opened April 30 at 12421 Pearl Road (the former Staples).

Qahwah Coffee House — Looking to open in the former Burger Fi spot on Pearl Road, it offers authentic Yemeni coffee and traditional pastries.

Community Market Returning to Town Center

The popular Community Market will return to Town Center Park this month

The market will run on Fridays from May 22 to July 10 at the park, 18300 Zverina Lane.

Hours are 4-7 p.m. (There will be no market June 12 and July 3).

The market features locally produced goods from a variety of local vendors, including things like honey, granola, flowers, fruits, vegetables, baked goods and more.

Interested in becoming a vendor? We're always looking for unique businesses.

If you have handmade goods, crafts, baked goods, produce or other interesting items, contact Molly Weir at molly.weir@strongsville.org.

Go Red for Firefighters, Blue to Show Support for Police

Residents can show support for their local safety forces by lighting their homes or businesses red or blue this month.

“Light the Night” with red lights through May 3 to show support for firefighters and honor those who have fallen in the line of duty.

“Light Ohio Blue” runs May 6-16 and supports police officers, while also honoring law enforcement officers who have died in the line of duty.

Businesses on the Move

BW3 celebrated its renovation with a grand re-opening and ribbon-cutting event on March 18.

Dunkin’ also invited the community to participate in a grand reopening of its store at 13128 Royalton Road on April 20 following a renovation. It’s one of three Dunkin’ locations in Strongsville and now features a redesigned interior with new display cases and a self-serve area.

Bruster’s Real Ice Cream is still under construction on Pearl Road at Ellsworth. The store will feature homemade ice cream and products like sundaes, shakes, pies and cakes.
