WHEREAS, the City of Strongsville has a decoration in the shape of an oversized birthday cake celebrating the bicentennial of the City, which will have little, if any, monetary value at the end of 2016, and no longer will be needed for any municipal purpose due to obsolescence; and

WHEREAS, the Village of Grafton, Ohio also will be celebrating its bicentennial in 2017, and has requested an interest in obtaining the "cake" for their celebration; and

WHEREAS, any possible salvage or auction value of this City property in all likelihood would be de minimis, and the Village of Grafton would benefit from such decoration; and
